

2011 Sesquicentennial Grant Program

"The mission of the West Virginia Sesquicentennial of the American Civil War Commission is to promote awareness and commemorate the unique creation of the State of West Virginia, the role of its citizens during the Civil War era, and the continuing effect of the war on our people."

The West Virginia Sesquicentennial Commission of the American Civil War has established a fund to help local communities and organizations plan and host events to commemorate the Sesquicentennial of the American Civil War and West Virginia statehood. Grants are available up to $5,000.

To be eligible to receive funding, a project must:

- Be free and open to the public
- Comply with federal non-discrimination statutes
- Be held in West Virginia
- Be sponsored by a local community or nonprofit organization
- Have accurate budget requests, reflecting the actual costs of the project
- Have a dollar-per-dollar match from cash and in-kind contributions
- Support the mission of the Sesquicentennial commission

Projects include, but are not limited to:

- Events
- Community Festivals
- Re-enactments and Living Histories
- Pageants
- Educational Programs for area schools
- Lectures and symposia
- Exhibit development for local libraries and/or museums
- Research and Media projects to promote local Civil War era history
- Archival projects

Directions for Applicants

Deadlines for applications are: February 1, May 1, and September 1.

Applicants should allow six weeks between the deadline and the start of the project. Programs must occur between April 18, 2011 and December 31, 2011.

1. Complete the application cover sheet. Applications must be typewritten.
2. Complete the budget form; grant requests cannot exceed $5,000.
3. Attach a project narrative of not more than one-page, which includes:
 - a. Information on the sponsoring organization and key project staff
 - b. A description of your planned event/program
 - c. Your target audience and its anticipated size
 - d. Your marketing plan

Grant Application Review

All grant applications will be reviewed by the West Virginia Sesquicentennial Commission of the American Civil War or a subcommittee of the commission designated by the chairperson. - Funds are limited, so not all applicants will receive grants or may receive less than the amount requested.

All projects which receive funding must include the commission logo on the printed materials (i.e. brochures, fliers, banners) and include the following sentence in media materials: "This project is provided with financial assistance from the West Virginia Sesquicentennial Commission of the American Civil War." A final report on the project, including a budget report, will need to be submitted to the commission within 90 days of the project's completion.
